

AVIANET A-Cloud Even Better

New Licensing Options and Even Better Security Services – All in AVIANET A-Cloud

For the Aviation industry, a move towards Cloud Computing is a serious matter. Being one of the major IT trends, Cloud Computing is still developing and AVIANET is a major player in this space.

One new Software-as-a-Service Feature on our AVIANET A-Cloud Platforms is Oracle with different licensing options. Take advantage of it and save money.

New Oracle Licensing
Options on AVIANET
A-Cloud Platforms

Have you wished that Oracle software is applicable on the cloud? Now the time has come. Oracle licenses are part of the on-demand, pay-as-you-go benefits on our A-Cloud Platforms. That means you will save even more costs. Think about the software-related costs. They are still a huge expense factor for your business. One of the main software used by many companies is Oracle software.

Available Applications:

- All editions of Oracle Database 11g plus their corresponding options
- Oracle WebLogic Server
- Support for Oracle Database 12c in pipeline

From now on, all editions of Oracle Database 11g and their corresponding options are available on our A-Cloud Platforms. We are already working on expanding the available applications to even better support you in your daily business performance. Have Oracle software available when you need it through the pay-as-you-go access.

Take advantage of this Software-as-a-Service feature and save costs.

Resolve the challenge of moving database processing to the cloud.

Your Benefits:

- Investment savings by paying for what you need
- Higher licensing flexibility by choosing an alternative to perpetual licenses
- Quick provisioning by extending processing capacity

Benefit from Our Expertise

Choose AVIANET as your expert in Cloud Computing and take a bundle of advantages of it. You will be billed on a monthly basis. Furthermore, we are working on offering our subscriptions on an hourly basis. Thus, you will have a clear overview of the costs. Additionally, you can transfer existing Oracle licenses to our A-Cloud platforms with no additional fees – you are only paying for the cloud services.
